

State Informatics Officer, NIC, Arunachal Pradesh meets the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Arunachal Pradesh on 20th June, 2018.

On 20th June, 2018, Sh. Saibal Sarkar, State Informatics Officer, NIC, Arunachal Pradesh along with team of officers called on the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Arunachal Pradesh, Sh. Pema Khandu in his office chamber.

During the meeting the Hon'ble Chief Minister reviewed the activities of National Informatics Centre in the State. The SIO gave a detailed account of the activities of NIC, in the State and presented a report to the Hon'ble Chief Minister which covered various services of NIC, list of core ICT projects being implemented in the State and the new initiatives planned for the coming days. The Hon'ble Chief Minister gave a patient hearing and appreciated the NIC for its active support in ICT projects and services including recent upgradation of VSAT system in the districts of Arunachal Pradesh.

The Hon'ble Chief Minister also requested the NIC for strengthening of IT network in the State and assured of extending all possible support from the State Government for smooth implementation of various Digital India and State's flagship programme.

The team of NIC officers apprised the Hon'ble Chief Minister on the issues being faced in implementing few ICT projects and the augmentation of Leased Line Circuit to the District Centres. The Hon'ble Chief Minister assured to have a meeting with the Internet Service Providers (ISPs) to resolve the matter for better internet connectivity to the districts.

Tweet made by the Hon'ble CM in his Twitter Handle

1 tweets 1 tweets & replies media

 Pema Khandu  @PemaKhanduBJP · 6m

Shri Saibal Sarkar, SIO, NIC called on this morning with his officer and reviewed the activities @NICMeity, Arunachal. Requested #NIC for strengthening of IT network in State and discussed on smooth implementation of various Digital India and State's flagship programme. @rsprasad

Digital India and Ministry of E & IT

Newspaper Excerpts

Thursday, June 21, 2018 Home Spark Feedback Features Contact Us

The Arunachal Times

STATE NEWS READERS FORUM EDITORIAL RING SIDE VIEW MONDAY MUSING NATIONAL NORTH EAST SPORTS

ITANAGAR, Jun 20: Chief Minister Pema Khandu has asked National Informatics Centre (NIC) state Informatics Officer, Saibal Sarkar to strengthen the IT network in the state.

The chief minister assured all possible government support for smooth implementation of various 'Digital India' and state flagship programmes, when Sarkar and his officers called on the chief minister, here on Wednesday.

The chief minister also reviewed the activities of the NIC in the state. He appreciated the NIC for its active support in ICT projects and services, including the recent upgrade of VSAT systems in the districts with new technology.

HOME NORTH EAST NEIGHBOURS BUSINESS ENTERTAINMENT SPORTS ENVIRONMENT CITIZEN JOURNALISTS OPINION

BREAKING NEWS [June 21, 2018 12:23 am] Special training in Guwahati for cops to combat crimes ASSAM

Strengthen IT network in State: Arunachal CM to NIC authority

1 min read

DAMIEN LEPCHA | ITANAGAR | June 20, 2018 11:19 pm

State Informatics Officer Saibal Sarkar of National Informatics Centre (NIC) along with his officers called on Arunachal Pradesh Chief Minister Pema Khandu at Itanagar in his office on Wednesday.

During the meeting, Arunachal Chief Minister Pema reviewed the activities of National Informatics Centre in the State.

Chief Minister Khandu appreciated the NIC for its active support in ICT projects and services including recent process of upgrading the VSAT systems in the districts of the State with new technology.

Chief Minister Khandu also requested the NIC authorities for strengthening of IT network in the State and assured of extending all possible support from the State Government for smooth implementation of various Digital India and State's flagship programme.

Photo: Northeast Now